You will then receive:

1. Bib number. To be worn on the front when you are running and back when you are biking. It is recommended to wear an elastic race belt.
2. Depending on the number of competitors, you may be asked to have your event number written on your hand. Staff to write your number in permanent marker that washes off skin.
3. Bike number. To be stuck on your bike seat post.
4. Helmet number. To be stuck on the front of your helmet.
5. Timing chip. This is supplied with a Velcro band to secure to your ankle.
(DO NOT WEAR THE TIMING CHIP ON YOUR WRIST! ONLY TO BE WORN ON YOUR ANKLE)

Please note: It is advisable to arrive approximately 60 minutes before your start time. This then gives you plenty of time to register, rack your bike and understand the layout of the event.

Transition Security

Once you have registered for the event, please make your way to the transition area. To enter transition you must show your corresponding event number and bike sticker (must be stuck to your seat post) to the security staff. After you complete your event and collect your bike and race kit you must show your corresponding event number and bike number to security staff to exit transition. These procedures are in place in order to provide and secure area to leave your bike and race kit in. No exceptions will be made.

DO NOT LOSE YOUR EVENT NUMBER.

Any discrepancies will be dealt with at the end of the event when all other race kit has been removed from the transition area.

The run in/out and bike in/out transition exits are not to be used for dropping off kit or retrieving kit. Security staff will be on all entry/exits to transition and will not let you pass. Only use the competitor side entrance to transition.

Only competitors are allowed in transition.

Transition area is surrounded by security crowd barriers to provide perimeter security.

Transition in general:

Your bike racking space will be on a first come first served basis. Lay your race kit out next to your bike. Make sure you keep your allocated area tidy and free from any trip hazards to other competitors.

The run out and bike in/out exits to transition are marked with large signs for easy identification. Please familiarise yourself fully with the layout of transition and the location of your bike. This will ensure when you complete the first run you will have a clear mental picture of where you need to go.

Please note: You will need to leave all the kit you need for your event next to your bike, as once the event starts you will not be able to adjust your transition area.

Event Briefing

It is mandatory to attend the event briefing relevant to your event. This is held 10 - 15 minutes before the start time. You must attend these in your clothing that you will be starting the event in ready to start immediately after the briefing. The briefing will be held in the run start entry area.

First Run Course

The run will be an out and back course, as illustrated on the attached route map.

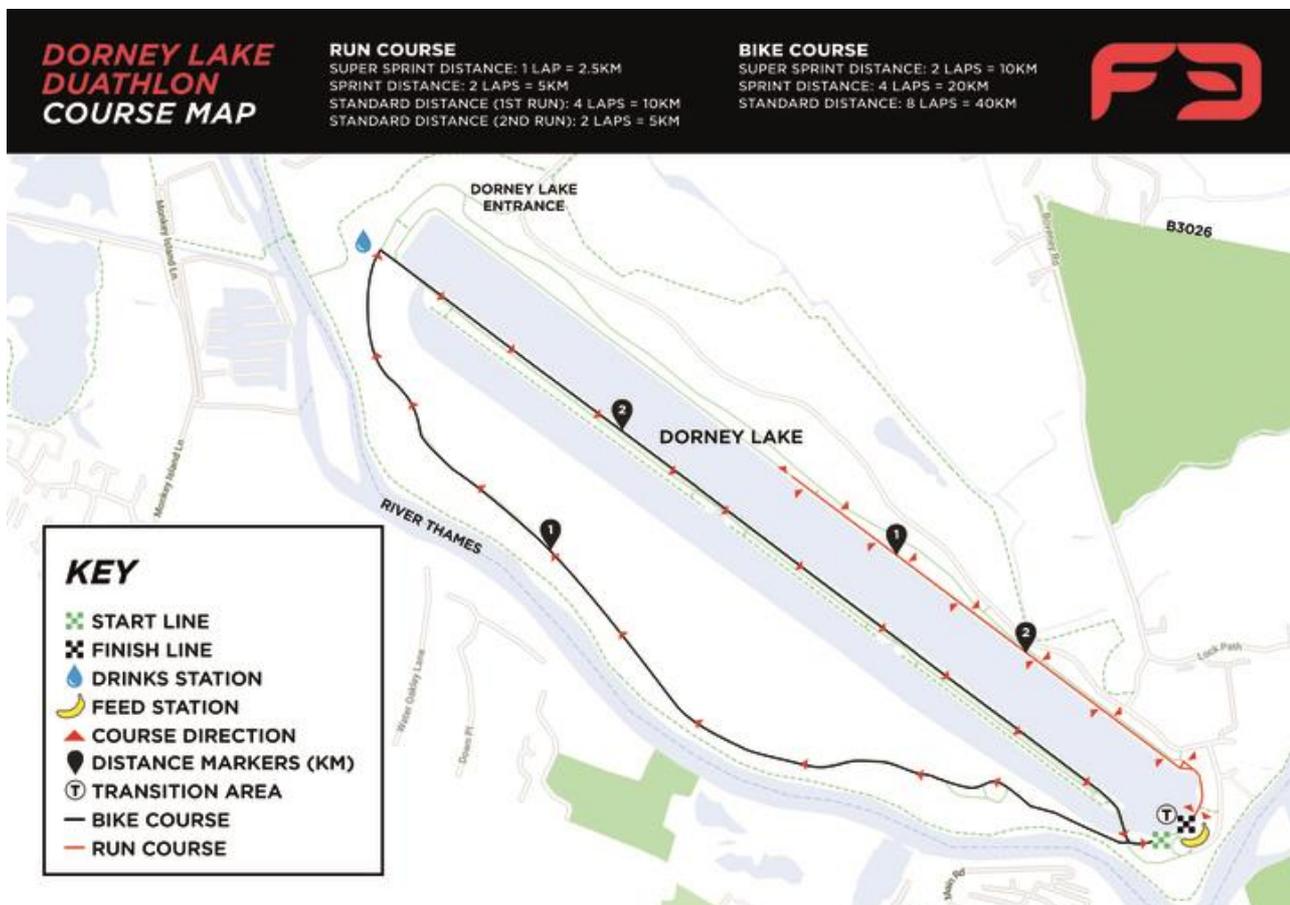

On completion of the relevant running course proceed into the RUN IN entrance of the transition area.

Bike Course

Your helmet must be on your head and fastened up before you touch your bike. You must then push your bike to the bike out exit. You can then mount your bike once you have crossed the mount line (marked with tape on the road and signed) and ride onto the bike course. Please be aware that they may already be cyclists out on the course lapping round as you join the route.

It is your responsibility to count the number of laps you have ridden. It is appreciated that counting to 2, 4 or 8 is a considerable task when racing. We will have some signage at the end of each lap to remind you how many full laps you have to ride so that you can mentally tick off the distances as your race progresses.

On completion of the correct number of laps follow the BIKE IN signs to return your bike and collect your running kit. Ensure that you dismount well before the dismount line (marked on the road) and keep your helmet on and fastened until you have racked your bike in the correct place

Final Run Course

Leave transition by the run out exit and join the running course.

Please remember to hand your timing chip in (if you have one and we are using chip timing) before collecting drinks and refreshment after crossing the line. Failure to hand in your timing chip will result in a £10 surcharge to cover the replacement of the chip.

We look forward to meeting you at Dorney Lake.
